Hate Crime

If you experience hate crime, report it to the police:

Call 101 to report a crime

Call 999 in an emergency

Report online at thamesvalley.police.uk

If you don't want to speak to the police, you can contact Victims First for confidential advice and support:

Call 0300 1234 148

Or go to victims-first.org.uk

It's not ok to be abused because of who you are, how you look or what you believe in.

Don't suffer in silence.

We're here to help and keep you safe.

Hate crime is when someone targets you because of who you are.

This could be because of your:

Race

Religion

Sexual orientation

Disability

Or transgender identity

Transgender

If you think someone has targeted you because of these things, report it.

Hate crimes can happen anywhere, even online.

They can include:

Threats

Intimidation

Damage to your property

Physical attacks

ALERT

If it's happening to you, don't just ignore it.

POLICE

If you tell us, we can investigate it and try to stop it from getting worse for you or someone else.